

MOW WEEKLY UPDATE!

11/12/2009

Hello MOW Folks. Some of you may have been wondering where the Weekly Update has been. We did not forget you, so those of you who have been waiting these few days in front of your computer for the Weekly Update before you start your week, your waiting is over. Now being that this is a late update and I don't have time to put the photos together nor long explanations we are going to have the, late and short update.

WEEK IN REVIEW:

Tuesday: The crew got together, the weed crew went down and cut brush at Setzer and the evening crew did some tamping. And there was much rejoicing.

Thursday: Again we had a crew gather, they went down to Setzer and chipped the brush cut on Tuesday by the weed crew. There was much rejoicing.

Saturday: We did not work on Saturday

WEEK AHEAD:

Tuesday: We will be busy in the shops. So be ready to bend some wrenches. We meet at the shops starting at 3:00 p.m. for those of a less labor intensive lifestyle and 5:00 p.m. for those who labor for a living.

Thursday: More work in the shops as normal we meet at 5:00 p.m.

Saturday: We meet at the shops at 8:00 a.m. for more wonderfully great times on the tracks of the Sacramento Southern Railroad. At 1:30 we will have the new docent class visit our worksite for a dog and pony show about MOW.

See you out on the line,

John, Sandy, and Chris
